WHAT'S HAPPENING AT THE HEADQUARTERS LIBRARY IN MAY 2024

Music Sandwiched In

In partnership with the Spartanburg Philharmonic, SCPL is proud to present Music Sandwiched In. Bring your own lunch or there will be a limited number of boxed lunches available for purchase from Jason's Deli. Doors to the Barrett Room will open at 11:45 a.m., 30 minutes before the program starts at 12:15 p.m. Tables and chairs are first come, first serve. Please refrain from bringing heating equipment or hot liquids for lunch when attending. Performances in May include:

May 1 – Philharmonic Flutes

May 15 – Reel Sisters

Peddlers, Merchants, and Manufacturers: How Jewish Entrepreneurs Built Economy and Community in Upcountry South Carolina

Join us on May 13 at 7:00 p.m. at the Headquarters Library for an evening with Diane Vecchio, professor emerita of history at Furman University, as she discusses her latest book exploring the economic experiences of Jews in the Upstate of South Carolina and the impact their communities had on the region's social, political, and cultural life. Contact 864-596-3508 for more information.

Next Step Sewing: Book Sleeve

Join us on May 15 at 10:00 a.m. in the Spark Space to learn how to sew your own book sleeve. Not recommended for beginners. All supplies provided. Sign-ups required. Open to ages 12 & up. Call 864-216-7554 or visit the Spark Space for more information.
