What's happening at the Headquarters Library, September 2023

The Caretaker*: A Launch Party Reading and Signing with Ron Rash

Please join us on Tuesday, September 26 at 6:30 p.m. at the Headquarters Library as we partner with Hub City Bookshop to welcome Ron Rash and celebrate the release of "The Caretaker," Rash's new novel - on the date of publication! Told against the backdrop of the Korean War as a small Appalachian town sends its sons to battle, "The Caretaker" by award-winning author Ron Rash ("One of the great American authors at work today" -The New York Times) is a breathtaking love story and a searing examination of the acts we seek to justify in the name of duty, family, honor, and love. The first 100 attendees will receive a free copy of the book. Hub City will also be selling books the night of the event. It's going to be a great evening! Contact 864-574-6815 for more information.

A Night with Sara Nović

Few novels grabbed the attention of 2022 readers like "True Biz," which shared the trials and tribulations of the students and employees at a Deaf residential school. "True Biz" is a love letter to Deaf culture & an original fictional study of sign language, lip-reading and disability rights. It's also a lively, engaging coming of age tale, falling in line with modern classics like "The House on Mango Street," "Election" and "Trust Exercise." In conjunction with the Deaf Education program at Converse University, SCPL will host Sara Nović in the Barrett Room of the Headquarters Library on Monday, September 18 at 7:00 p.m. for a night of conversation, questions, and signing. Copies of "True Biz," along with Nović's other books, will be available for purchase through Hub City Bookshop. ASL interpreters will be present for the entirety of the event.
