

Design A Library Card Contest

In Celebration of the United States of America's 250th Anniversary

On July 4, 2026, the United States of America will celebrate the nation's 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. To celebrate this historic milestone, SCPL is hosting a Design A Library Card contest. Your entry should reflect this year's theme, "What does the United States of America Mean to You?" Your imagination is the limit! Pick up an entry form at any library branch or download a copy from www.spartanburglibraries.org.

Requirements

- All participants must have an active library card account.
- All entries must be submitted on the template provided.
- Only original designs may be submitted. All entries subject to copyright will be excluded.

How to Enter & Deadline for Entry

Simply design your library card in the space provided and complete the form. Return completed forms to any library branch or submit via email to sptcirc@infodepot.org, January 1 - February 28, 2026. Winners will be notified and announced on Facebook and Instagram. We will pick a winner from the adult, teen, and children's age groups. The new library cards will be issued in June during Summer Reading. Winners will receive a new library card in their design! Please see the entry form for details and restrictions that will apply.
