DAYCARE & CAMP INFORMATION

JUNE 1 - JULY 31, 2023

Updated April 25, 2023

HOW TO PARTICIPATE:

Spartanburg County Public Libraries invites your organization to take part in Summer Reading starting June 1st! All ages are invited to read for prizes and join us for fun programs this summer! Choose a combination of 10 challenges to finish a card and win prizes! Return the gamecard(s) to your closest library location no later than July 31st and receive prizes.

Options	Description
Option 1	Pick up game cards for your organization at the library (or print them from our library website). Pass them out to the parents and ask them to complete the card and return it to their nearest library.
Option 2	Attach a class list to 1 game card to track reading aloud to a group of children. Return that to your nearest library. Pick up prizes to give to your children.

ATTENDING A PROGRAM:

For a public program, the public is given the priority for admittance. Daycares will be expected to call prior to their visit, but there is no guarantee that enough supplies or space will be available.

- If admittance to the program is limited and requires sign up, the public will have first access to reserve their seat prior to the event. Daycares must call back or wait for a librarian to call them back.
- The supervisor must be at least 18 years old and abide by the Staff-to-Child ratio regulations set in place by SC Child Care. Library staff is not included in the ratio.

Daycares must call or wait for a librarian to call them back.

For a daycare program, sign up at spartanburglibraries.org. These programs are most suitable for the 5-12 age group. They will be offered at the Headquarters Library only and space is limited. Your spot is not guaranteed until you have been contacted by a librarian.
