Adults

This Autumn, our skies will be full of migrating raptors! Join us on August 18 to find out more about these beautiful birds and their travels through our region.

Are you tired of all the books you have in your house? The Landrum Book Swap is back! Bring your gently used books on August 26 and trade with other readers.

The Foothills Book Circle will be discussing Percival Everett's James this month. Stop by the circulation desk for your copy and join us on August 27!

Teens

Have you ever wondered what astronauts eat on the International Space Station or Artemis II? We're tasting space food on August 11, so bring your friends and check out some freeze-dried goodies!

On August 25, we're painting windchimes. Come put your own touch on something beautiful for your garden or porch!

Events at Landrum Library

Adults

Mondays, in August
6pm
Yoga @ Your Library

An all skills yoga class is offered every Monday at the Landrum Library. Bring your own mat or blanket to bring the start of your week to a close in a relaxed environment. The class is $2 per person.

Tuesday, 8/18
6pm
Hawk Watch: Raptor Migration in our South Carolina Mountains

We will take a look at what, why, and how migrating raptors fly south during the autumn months. Sassafras Mountain in Pickens County is one of the observational sites used to send data to Hawk Migration Association during the migration season. Thousands of hawks could possibly be seen in one day at our state's highest point.
