WHAT'S HAPPENING AT THE HEADQUARTERS LIBRARY IN FEBRUARY 2025

North of Main: Selections from Spartanburg's Black Northside Neighborhoods Exhibit

In coordination with the newly released book from Hub City Press, this exhibit chronicles the historic Spartanburg neighborhoods of North Dean Street, Gas Bottom, and Back of the College, highlighting seldom-heard stories from emancipation to the modern era. This exhibit is on display December 10, 2024 - March 13, 2025, in the AT&T Exhibition Lobby at the Headquarters Library. Contact 864-596-3508 for more information.

Chautauqua: Charlie Chaplin

When Charles Chaplin began filming The Great Dictator in 1939, there was hesitant Hollywood enthusiasm for the project. How big a risk might it be to launch a brazen satire of Naziism and Hitler while the United States was staying out of the war in Europe? Audiences were curious though. The Great Dictator would be Chaplin's first film in which they'd hear him speak dialogue. And then Chaplin's voice grew louder. By 1942, Chaplin was publicly advocating for the United States to support Russia in a second front against Germany. J. Edgar Hoover was paying attention and the House Un-American Activities Committee (HUAC) had questions. Gossip columnists turned their focus toward Chaplin and real-life drama intensified. The once beloved "Little Fellow" was now in an arena in which his reputation was assailed and his allegiances questioned. What would he say in response? Join us at the Headquarters Library on February 6 at 3:00 p.m. and 7:00 p.m. to find out. Registration is required for this program. Contact 864-596-3508 for more information.

Law Talk - Family Law

Tuesday, February 18, 2025, 6 – 7:30pm

The South Carolina Bar, in collaboration with public libraries and various community organizations across the state, offers the Law Talk program - free legal education events open to everyone. Each Law Talk session is led by a licensed South Carolina attorney or judge and includes a 30-to-45-minute presentation followed by a brief Q&A session. Law Talk sessions are designed to provide general information on the legal topic covered, rather than guidance on individual cases. To register, call 864-596-3505 or visit www.spartanburglibraries.org.
