Celebrate Black History Month

February is the perfect time to honor Black voices and stories that inspire. Check out Brown Girl Dreaming by Jacqueline Woodson for a heartfelt memoir in verse or dive into history with Hidden Figures by Margot Lee Shetterly. Want something visual? March: Book One by John Lewis brings the Civil Rights Movement to life in graphic novel form. These reads are powerful, uplifting, and waiting for you at the library!

Fall in Love with a Good Book

Love is in the air! Cozy up with a classic like Pride and Prejudice by Jane Austen or enjoy a modern romance like The Wedding Date by Jasmine Guillory. For something sweet and adventurous, try Love & Gelato by Jenna Evans Welch. Whether you're a hopeless romantic or just looking for a feel-good story, we've got the perfect match for you this February!

Books vs. Movies - Which Wins?

Do you enjoy comparing a novel with its movie or TV adaptation? Then join us for our Page to Screen discussion program for adults! On February 4 at 4:00 p.m., we will be discussing Fried Green Tomatoes at the Whistle Stop Café by Fannie Flagg and its 1991 film adaptation.
