Libraries Closed

All branches of the Spartanburg County Public Libraries will be closed January 1 for New Year's Day. All branches of the Spartanburg County Public Libraries will also be closed on January 19 for Martin Luther King Jr. Day.

Adult Winter Reading

Fly into a world of good books this winter with Adult Winter Reading at the Spartanburg County Public Libraries. Stop by any library location December 1 – January 31 to pick up your Adult Winter Reading card or download it online to get started. Drop off your completed card at your local library and you'll be rewarded with a cozy beanie to keep you warm this winter (available while supplies last). Visit our website or your local library branch for more information.

Chautauqua: Daniel Morgan

In describing Daniel Morgan many words come to mind: ambitious, pugnacious, enterprising, cantankerous (but affable!) – and specifically in the context of the American War for Independence one could assign the qualities of endurance and genius. This untutored son of the frontier was the only general in the American Revolution, on either side, to produce a significant original tactical thought - his brilliant disposition at Cowpens of Militia, Continental Regulars, and Light Cavalry arranged perfectly to terrain and the prejudices of his enemy. Seldom has a battle, in which greater numbers were not engaged, been so important in its consequences as that of the Battle of Cowpens; Cowpens leads to Guilford Courthouse, Guilford Courthouse leads to Yorktown – and Yorktown leads to victory in the War for Independence. Make plans to join us for this Chautauqua program on January 15 at 3:00 p.m. and 7:00 p.m. at the Headquarters Library. Registration is required. Call 864-596-3508 for more information.

General Daniel Morgan the Morning of the Battle of Cowpens

We will host General Daniel Morgan, The Old Waggoner, as he gathers his troops the night before the Battle of Cowpens. The Old Waggoner will exhort us to do our best at Cowpens tomorrow morning, so come and muster and prepare for battle with Bloody Ban and the British Legion! This event takes place on Wednesday, January 14 at 2:00 p.m. and 6:30 p.m. This is NOT a Chautauqua event. Visit our website or call 864-285-9022 for more information.
