WHAT'S HAPPENING AT THE LANDRUM LIBRARY IN JULY 2024

Libraries Closed

All branches of the Spartanburg County Public Libraries will be closed on July 4 for the Independence Day.

Summer Reading is in full swing, and we've got something for everyone!

Advance registration is required for some of these programs. Please check with us.

Kids

Bring the littles to our regular Thursday storytime, or to TinkerTots on July 29 for a morning of creative, intentional play. For the bigger kids, we've got two great performers this month: Wildlife Geeks and their fuzzy, scaly, and slithery friends on July 9, and The Story Ship on July 23, where you can help dinosaurs save the world! And on July 3 and July 17, Super Summer Art Club will get your creativity flowing!

Teens

Tuesdays at 4:00 p.m. is YOUR TIME! We'll be playing games, making jewelry and painting with diamonds, and meeting some fun new tech at our Tech Time petting zoo!

Adults

On July 11, we are so excited to welcome best-selling author Beatriz Williams to the Landrum Library! She'll be introducing us to her new book, "Husbands and Lovers," so come get your copy signed! Conserving Carolina will be with us on July 16 as we explore the unique plants and flowers of the Glassy Mountain Heritage Preserve, and our own Foothills Book Circle will be discussing Geraldine Brooks's "Horse." Let us know if you'd like to join us!

Everyone is welcome to iced coffee and a concert at our outdoor stage on July 20, as we kick back and listen to Americana music by Chris Wayne.

And bring the whole family to our End-of-Summer-Reading Party on July 31 and celebrate with a FREE frozen treat from Southern Sno!
