From Memory to Archive:
Preserving Stories Through
Oral History

From stories around the fire to listening to relatives around the holiday table, oral tradition has always been a way to pass down the stories of those around us. Join us as we explore how to collect and preserve these stories through oral history interviews, along with an introduction to the library's new oral history make-away kits. Registration required. Space is limited to the first eight participants.

Law Talk: End of Life Issues

The South Carolina Bar, in collaboration with public libraries and various community organizations across the state, offers the Law Talk program - free legal education events open to everyone. Each Law Talk session is led by a licensed South Carolina attorney or judge and includes a 30-45 minute presentation followed by a brief Q&A session.

Law Talk sessions are designed to provide general information on the legal topic covered, rather than guidance on individual cases.
