Libraries Closed

All branches of the Spartanburg County Public Libraries will be closed Monday, May 25, 2026 for Memorial Day.

Adults

Are you tired of all the books you have in your house? Join us for our inaugural Book Swap! Bring your gently used books and trade with other readers.

It's gardening time! Land steward Mike Odle will be telling us how we can grow our own food and make our gardens as healthy as they can be.

The Foothills Book Circle will be discussing Maria Semple's Where'd You Go, Bernadette this month. Stop by the circulation desk for your copy!

Teens

It's Mini Masterpiece time! Create tiny paintings and display your skills on tiny easels. No painting experience required!

School's over, so come hang out and play trivia games with us. Bring your friends, show off how much you know, and win prizes!

From Soil to Supper: Where Your Garden and the World Grow Together

Gardener and land steward Mike Odle invites participants into a conversation about how curiosity, attention, and imagination can transform the way we see and work with our gardens. Drawing on decades of hands-on experience growing food in a wide range of soil types and conditions, Mike will share practical ways to observe and support the life of the garden right now, while also exploring how our individual gardens can contribute to the vitality of our communities and the wider world.
