TV Show Review by Teresa Herrera

Looking for a laugh out loud sitcom? Abbott Elementary is a comedy TV show where a camera crew is producing a documentary on underfunded public schools in Philadelphia. The cam crew navigates some of Abbott's tenured teachers, rookie teachers, and a tone-deaf principal. As the show unfolds, viewers get an inside look at the everyday challenges teachers face that are all handled with humor. Despite the obstacles, the staff's passionate dedication to their students shines through, creating touching moments alongside the laughs. If you enjoy the awkward humor and documentary style of The Office, you'll feel right at home at Abbott. The library has Seasons 1-3 on DVD available for check out.
