Adults

"Music Sandwiched In" is on the road! Bring your lunch and enjoy the Foothills Oompah Band at our outdoor stage on October 8 (program will move inside in case of inclement weather).

Thinking of building a business, but not sure where to start? Join an attorney from the SC Bar Association on October 8 as they walk you through the legal aspects you might need to know.

Join the Foothills Book Circle on October 23 as we read and discuss Chris Bohjalian's Hour of the Witch. Pick up your copy at our circulation desk!

What better time of year to learn about owls? Join Conserving Carolina's own Pam Torlina on October 28 as she tells us about the kinds of owls found in the Carolinas and what makes them so special.

Teens

Love to read but want a little company? Bring a book or pick one from the library, grab a quiet snack, and get cozy in our brand-new Silent Book Club on October 9!

Creative Writing, but make it easy! Join us for Blackout Poetry on October 14, where we'll create poems and word art buttons with old book pages.

Play games, eat snacks, and compete against your friends! We're having a Mario Party on October 28!

Kids

Lego Club is BACK! Unleash your building skills on October 2!

Mini-Makers and Homeschool will both be exploring the galaxy with Virtual Reality this month. Sign-up is required, and this activity is best for ages 6-12.

Family

It's Spooky Season! Join our Local History staff to hear some Spartanburg County ghost stories and make a fun craft. This activity is best suited for families with kids ages 6 and up.
